WorkLife Office

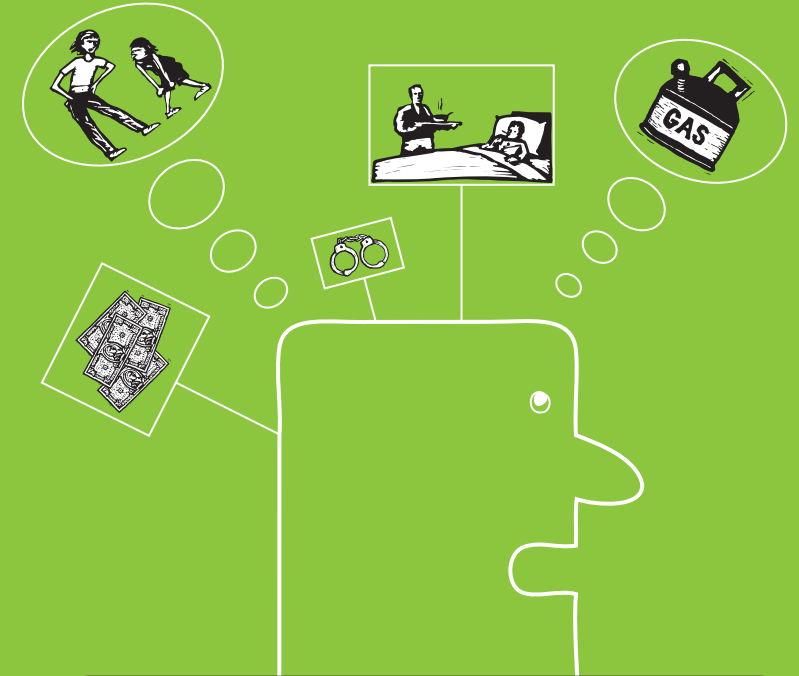

1667 Cole Boulevard
Building 19, Suite 400
Lakewood, Colorado 80401

Our office is open weekdays from 8 to 5,
but we're happy to make off-hours appointments.

Yep... we even come to you.

Say hello the next time we visit your worksite.

Better work. Better life. WorkLife.

"I can't come in today, because ____."

It's the worst feeling. Staring at the phone, trying to think what you'll say to your boss. Should you tell them what's really going on? About the eviction notice on your front door? The car with no gas? The babysitter who cancelled for the second time this week?

Keeping your life on track isn't always easy. You want to keep working, and work wants to keep you, but sometimes a small thing can cost you big time – hours, days, or more.

WorkLife can help.

We help people keep their jobs, and keep their lives running. Our navigators will find you the best resources and services available in your neighborhood, and they'll stick with you, to make sure it all works out. Best of all, there's never a fee for any of our confidential services, including help with:

- reliable transportation to and from work
- counseling – personal, marital, or family
- renting an apartment / buying a home
- budgeting / credit counseling
- kids out of control
- depression
- stress
- childcare
- more bills than you can handle
- applying for Medicaid, food stamps, etc.
- a drug or alcohol problem in your family
- conflict with co-workers, family, or neighbors

We can help with much more!

Who can use WorkLife?

If you work for one of the following companies, you automatically qualify for our basic services. And if you're also TANF-eligible*, we have even more to offer.
